Monthly comment

The Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV - Listed Private Equity Fund (I EUR) performed positively in June, increasing 2.2%, outperforming its benchmark and the MSCI World. Alternative asset managers were the main performance contributors, as there were signs of improving transaction activity in the second part of the month, with several managers stepping up exits. Private equity vehicles also contributed positively, as discounts contracted, although they remain well above historical averages. Debt vehicles were the only negative contributors, given the prospect of lower base rates and higher defaults, increasing the risk of dividend cuts.

EQT, the European alternative asset manager, was June's standout performer with a 13% gain as transaction activity accelerated. The manager announced five exits during the month, including the completed listed sale of Galderma, a Swiss dermatology and skincare company, and the partial IPO exit of Enity, a specialist mortgage provider in the Nordics. To bolster future fundraising efforts, EQT is increasingly focused on distributions, with EQT VII and EQT VIII reaching DPLs of 1.8x and 1.1x, respectively. The company also announced its next flagship private equity fund, EQT XI, with a target size of EUR 23bn, representing a 5% increase from the previous vintage. We believe management remains on track to achieve the EUR 100bn target for its current fundraising cycle.

TPG, the US alternative asset manager, also performed strongly as it explores expanding into the insurance segment. The company is in discussions to acquire Britehouse Financial, an American life insurer with USD 120bn of assets, leveraging the credit platform added through its 2023 acquisition of Angelo Gordon. During June, TPG also completed the acquisition of Peppertree Capital Management, a digital infrastructure manager with USD 8bn AUM, expanding into infrastructure, an asset class where TPG previously had limited presence.

HBM Healthcare, the Swiss biopharma vehicle, ranked among the weakest performers in June. The company reported a lower NAV per share, driven by weak performance of its listed holdings, including Cathay Biotech, and the depreciation of the US dollar. The biopharma sector continues to face negative sentiment due to reduced M&A activity and uncertainties surrounding drug pricing legislation in the US, creating a challenging environment for exits and IPOs. On a positive note, management initiated a further share buyback program for up to 10% of its market cap, taking advantage of the high NAV discount of 22%.
