Monthly comment

The Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV - Listed Private Equity Fund (I EUR) delivered strong performance in July, gaining approximately 5%, supported by a robust start to the earnings season. Alternative asset managers were the primary performance driver, benefiting from better-than-expected results and particularly strong fundraising momentum. Private equity vehicles contributed positively through moderate NAV growth and discount contraction, aided by corporate actions. Private debt vehicles also performed well supported by stable NAVs and healthy credit quality, though only few companies from that segment reported during July.

APAX emerged as July's standout performer following a major corporate action - a takeover offer at a 19% premium to the previous closing price. Prior to the offer, APAX was trading at a significant NAV discount of over 40%, making corporate actions highly attractive. The current offer price still reflects a 17% discount to NAV, leaving room for potentially higher bids and demonstrating the value creation potential in the sector's current discount environment.

Blackstone also delivered strong performance as one of the first alternative asset managers to report Q2 results, beating expectations across multiple key performance indicators. The company raised USD 52bn during the second quarter, bringing fundraising during the first half year to USD 113bn, driven primarily by credit and insurance segments. Management expressed optimism about continued fundraising momentum, with several larger funds currently in the market or coming to the market soon. Additionally, management highlighted positive economic indicators, including moderate revenue growth across portfolio companies and expectations of lower short-term interest rates.

Eurazeo ranked among the weakest performers in July, disappointing investors with a 1% decline in portfolio value during the first half of the year. The decline was attributed to adverse currency movements and compressed valuation multiples. Technical factors, including a potential removal from an equity index, further pressured the stock. Despite these headwinds, management remains optimistic, highlighting the underlying health of portfolio companies with the buyout portfolio achieving 17% EBITDA growth. The company reiterated its commitment to an accelerated EUR 400m share buyback program, representing approximately 10% of current market capitalization and offering significant value creation given the stock's 50% NAV discount.
