Monthly comment

In February, Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV - Listed Infrastructure developed positively. The Fund profited, among others, from the publication of financial results of some portfolio companies. The shares of European infrastructure operators, in particular, performed favorably.

Cellnex Telecom was among the strongest performing portfolio companies during the month. The Spanish infrastructure operator for wireless telecommunication exceeded investors' expectations, increasing its EBITDA by 23% and its net profit by 38% compared to the previous year. In addition, Cellnex announced a dividend growth of 10%.

Beijing Capital International Airport also developed positively in February. The company reported a higher passenger volume and announced the start of a new auction process for duty free shops in two of the airport terminals, which could lead to higher concession earnings.

Furthermore, Pennon Group considerably increased its value during the reporting period. The English water operator benefitted from the announcement to raise its dividend yield.

Definitions

This monthly report is produced based on information available on the last working day of the month.

Infrastructure

The term 'infrastructure' comprises all durable capital goods which ensure the proper development of an economy. They comprise transportation infrastructure assets such as roads, airports, railways, harbours, tunnels and bridges. However, they also include assets of the communication infrastructure, such as TV and radio transmission systems, antennas and transmission towers for mobile phones, satellite systems and cable networks. Infrastructure also refers to utility assets in the fields of energy and water, such as energy facilities for power generation and distribution, of gas and oil exploration and distribution, as well as other water supply and distribution facilities, including desalination plants and sewage treatment facilities. Finally, infrastructure also includes the provision of services in the fields of education and health, as well as public sector building facilities (social infrastructure).

Listed infrastructure

A 'listed infrastructure' company is listed on a stock exchange and its purpose is investing in infrastructure assets.

Total return

Total return is calculated according the standard BVI-method of the Bundesverband Investment and Asset Management.
