Monthly comment

After a volatile start of the year, equity markets rebounded in March and recovered part of the loss year-to-date. Despite the Fed's first interest rate hike since December 2018, market sentiment turned positive during the second half of the month, when Russia and Ukraine signaled progress in their negotiations and oil prices declined from their peaks. In this market environment, the Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV – Listed Private Equity performed well and was ahead of its benchmark. All sub-sectors performed positively while direct investment companies were the best performers.

Apax Global Alpha ("APAX"), a direct investment company with a focus on software and IT, was one of the best performers. Management published strong full year 2021 results with NAV increasing by 28.7%, driven by a combination of operating improvements and earnings growth of portfolio companies. The private equity portfolio capitalized on increasing transaction activity and exited several holdings. Of the 15 companies that were either exited or went public, APAX generated an average gross money multiple of 4.5x, corresponding to a gross IRR of 54.1%. In addition, the company significantly increased its dividend and management remained optimistic for the year and expects operational improvements at portfolio companies to be the main growth driver.

The French direct investment company Eurazeo was another good performer and driven by strong results for the full year 2021. NAV has grown by 40%, the board announced a special dividend and increased the regular dividend by 17%. Over the last years, the company has successfully expanded into private equity asset management, increased AUM by 41%, tripled performance fees and realized mature holdings at an average money multiple of 2.4x. Management revised its guidance upwards and targets to double AUM within the next 5-7 years.
