Monthly comment

Driven by a positive performance throughout all listed private equity segments, Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV – Listed Private Equity achieved a significant value gain in April.

The strongest performance contributors were holding companies, primarily driven by Investment AB Kinnevik. The Swedish private equity company satisfied its investors with the published quarterly results of the underlying portfolio companies. Millicom, as an example, reported a 4% growth of organic revenues year over year, resulting in an improved EBITDA margin by 1.8%. Portfolio company Zalando reported a 23% revenue growth and a positive EBITDA margin of 1.5-3.5% compared to previous quarter. Furthermore, Kinnevik's board proposed an extraordinary dividend payment, equivalent to a yield of 7.6%, as of 31 March 2016.

Generally, April saw a market environment characterized by a significant divestment activity. The British Private Equity company 3i Group satisfied its investors, among others, with the sale Amor Group for GBP 89 million and the sale of Mayborn Group to Shanghai Jahwa for GBP 135 million. Both investments have been sold for an investment multiple of 2.3x and 3.5x, respectively.

French private equity investor Altamir also reported several successful divestments. Through the proceeds, the company is well positioned to successfully participate in arising opportunities. Furthermore, Altamir increased its dividend by 12% compared to the previous year.
