Monthly comment

In December, concerns about high inflation, rising interest rates and the fast spreading of the Omicron variant resulted in an increased volatility. In this context, Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV – Listed Private Equity declined, with alternative asset managers performing the weakest. However, on year-to-date basis, the Fund reported the best performance since inception with alternative asset managers being the best performers, gaining 85% on average as a result of strong fundraising throughout the year, increasing transaction activity and robust portfolio returns.

One of the best performers was the British direct investment company 3i Group. The largest holding, Action, a Netherlands-based discount retailer, continues to perform above expectations. Sales increased by 25% during the first nine months in 2021 and the international roll-out of new stores is well on track. In addition, the company benefitted from positive deployment and exit activity such as the acquisition of EC Waste, a fully integrated solid waste service provider and a potential exit of Havea Group, a manufacturer of a wide range of over-the-counter natural healthcare products.

On the other hand, the US business development company Solar Capital was one of the weakest performers in December. The company completed a merger with another senior focused investment vehicle. While the transaction is NAV neutral, the yield of the portfolio is expected to decline given the acquired portfolio is more defensive. Long-term, management is positive on the transaction and highlights an increased stock liquidity, potential synergies, as well as a reduction in management fees.

Finally, HarbourVest Global Private Equity increased in value as the company reported solid monthly results including a NAV per share increase of 3.4% month-over-month. Management was very active in the last month and completed exits of USD 131 million and commitments of USD 285 million.
