Monthly comment

In August, global equity markets developed negatively, driven by trade concerns between the US and China, political uncertainty in the UK, and weak macroeconomic data from Germany. Against this backdrop, Partners Group Listed Investments – Listed Private Equity was also negatively impacted but outperformed the broader equity markets. The stronger performance was mainly driven by US alternative asset managers and fund of funds.

One of the strongest performers in August was the business development company, Bain Capital Specialty Finance. The company reported positive results and continued to ramp up the portfolio with a focus on sponsor-backed transactions. Compared to the previous quarter, the portfolio has grown by 33%, to USD 2.4bn. The track record is strong with no non-accrual to date and the portfolio is of high quality.

On the other hand, Brookfield Business Partners, a Canadian direct investment company focusing on business services and industrial companies, suffered from its exposure to Clarios, formerly known as the Power Solutions Business of Johnson Controls. The global producer and distributor of automotive batteries reported disappointing results with EBITDA declining 16% year-on-year. Since then, Brookfield's management reviewed initiatives to support the share price and launched a share buyback program.
