Monthly comment

In February, Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV – Listed Private Equity lost in value but remained more stable than broader equity markets and increased its outperformance year- to-date. After a good start into 2020, investor sentiment turned negative in the last week of the month due to concerns about the spread of the coronavirus and its impact on the global economic growth outlook.

During the reporting period, the alternative asset manager Ares Management was one of the best performing company in the portfolio and convinced investors with the publication of the quarterly report. The company increased fee-paying assets by 18% compared to the same period last year to USD 97bn. In addition, management confirmed its positive outlook and announced to increase the dividend by 25% in 2020.

Another good performer was HBM Healthcare. The Swiss based direct investment company profited from the successful IPO of Arcutis Biotherapeutics, a late stage biopharmaceutical company focused on developing drugs to treat various skin diseases. The stock was placed at the upper end of the price range and, on the first trading day, increased by 28% due to high demand from investors.

On the other hand, Kinnevik, the Swedish direct investment company, suffered from weak performance of its two largest portfolio holdings. Zalando, the German online fashion retailer, lost in value despite reporting positive results as investors became increasingly concerned about a negative impact from the corona virus on revenues and the supply chain. In addition, Tele2, the Swedish mobile services provider, suffered from increasing pricing pressure in its home market.
