In November, Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV – Listed Private Equity declined in value. Hereby, the fund reported a wide dispersion of returns for the underlying portfolio companies.

The British Intermediate Capital Group (ICG) developed positively during the reporting period. ICG is currently in the transformation from a direct investment company to an alternative asset manager. Hereby, the company will further expand the asset management division and will increasingly focus on a recurring fee structure. The company published favorable half-year results and announced an increase in assets under management of 14% to EUR 27.2 billion. ICG also expects large capital inflows for next year.

The Danish holding company Schouw failed to convince their investors with the publication of the third quarter results. Nevertheless, the company increased year on year their consolidated turnover and EBIT by 12% and 3% respectively.

Also in November, the Californian investment management firm Oaktree Capital published the financial figures of their newly acquired business development company Oaktree Specialty Lending Corp., which developed negatively in the reporting period. The new management is currently re-organizing the portfolio structure and has reported a NAV-decline for the third quarter.
