Monthly comment

In April, Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV – Multi Asset Income increased in value, while broader equity markets also had a positive month. Primarily driven by easing concerns about a potential economic slowdown, North American equity markets reached record levels during the reporting period. In contrast, emerging markets performed rather weakly in light of the current US dollar appreciation.

One of the strongest companies in the portfolio this month was Transcanada. The North American pipeline operator announced the commencement of a binding open season for one of its key pipelines, indicating strong uptake demand. Additionally, President Trump issued a new presidential permit for Transcanada to build the Keystone XL pipeline on the US-Canadian border.

Highwoods Properties had a negative impact in April. In March, the REIT was already negatively affected by a sudden and unexpected loss of a tenant. Although Highwoods Properties confirmed that the loss is manageable and does not affect the dividend payout, the company's share price performed worse during the month compared to the competition. This can mainly be explained by the fact that no new tenants have yet been found.

Another good performer in April was the US-based alternative asset manager Blackstone, which announced to abandon its partnership structure to form a C-Corporation. This move will simplify the investment process for international investors as well as allowing various index admissions. Driven by this news, Apollo and Carlyle also benefited from the assumption that they will be transformed into C-Corporations in the future.
