Monthly comment

In July, broader equity market continued to rise, partially due to the positives news on COVID-19 vaccines, accompanied by negative real interest rate in the U.S. Against this backdrop, Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV - Multi Asset Income posted a +1.8% gain, primarily attributable to Listed Real Estate companies as most portfolio companies reported strong and better-than-expected earnings for the second quarter of 2020.

The best performer this month was Prologis, the US logistics REIT delivered strong earnings and even raised its financial year guidance on funds from operations with an improved outlook for capital deployment. Consequently, the share price reacted strongly and rose more than 4% on the day itself.

Meanwhile, ENAV, responsible for air traffic control and navigation services in Italy, contributed negatively to the performance as the next regulatory update is likely to be postponed until December 2021 instead of 2020 due to the uncertainty on air traffic in Europe. This will result in application of the existing tariffs until 2021, and leaves uncertainty on how receivables will be collected given the suppressed air traffic in the past few months.

Finally, Annaly Capital Management has again been amongst the best contributors. The company reported strong earnings in late July. While the book value per share increased by +12%, the Net Interest Margin improved as financing costs declined significantly compared to last quarter. Lastly, the valuation continued to be attractive.
