Monthly comment

In September, the Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV - Multi Asset Income decreased in value but outperformed the global equity markets, which fell sharply. The market correction was broad-based from technology, to financials, and energy. Overall, the sentiment was largely spooked by the second wave of Covid-19 in a few major countries in Europe and the US, as well as the rich valuation of technology shares. Against the backdrop, the Fund's outperformance was primarily on the back of real estate, but also infrastructure and private equity to a smaller extent.

The best performer this month was Castellum, a Swedish real-estate company. Castellum benefitted from the positive market sentiment as Sweden was among the least affected countries by the second wave in Europe, while the country's debt level is one of the lowest, which provides ample liquidity to turn on spending tap to revive the Swedish economy. In addition, the company has successfully refinanced its notes at an attractive rate.

Meanwhile, Vinci, the French toll road operator, was the worst performer. The stock suffered due to a recent softness in traffic figures. In addition, Vinci's toll road concessions are more exposed to holiday destinations as well as other neighbouring countries, rather than logistics hubs, which means the traffic is likely to be affected more as we see a surge in the number of Covid-19 cases in the country.

Finally, National Grid, a UK grid operator, was a positive contributor to this month's performance. The stock rose on the favourable Competition and Markets Authority's provisional findings in the water price control appeals, which is potentially likely to prompt Ofgem to adopt a more reasonable stance in the energy network reviews. Accordingly, many view that the final RIIO-2 proposals due in December will likely be more acceptable to regulated utilities than the current draft.
