Monthly comment

In a positive market environment in March, Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV – Listed Income achieved a significant value gain, outperforming broader equity markets.

Over the reporting period several real estate companies were among the strongest portfolio companies. Stag Industrial, a US industrial properties operator, announced its quarterly results in March and exceeded expectations. Compared to the previous quarter, Stag Industrial increased the occupancy rate of its assets and reported a like-for-like net operating income growth of 1.7%.

Meanwhile, the shares of US railway operator Norfolk Southern also developed favorably after Canadian Pacific's CEO shared his optimism about the potential merger with Norfolk Southern. He assured investors that it will not be a hostile bid and there will be no attempt to replace the existing board of Norfolk Southern. Further, Norfolk Southern's management also indicated that they are willing to negotiate on a takeover price.

A favorable development was also achieved by business development companies (BDCs) on the back of positive results that were reported over the course of last quarter, which improved the perception of BDCs in the market.
