Monthly comment

Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV – Listed Income started the fourth quarter in a challenging environment, which was not least driven by concerns on possible interest rate increases in the US. However, the Fund still continues to significantly outperform broader equity markets on a year to date basis.

The top performer this month was Carlyle Group. The US-based asset manager announced having raised USD 3.6bn for a new private equity fund with a 15 year life-span. Furthermore, the company aims to raise USD 100bn over the next four years.

Among the negative performers in October were Union Pacific, a US-based railroad franchise and the French commercial property company Unibail Rodamco. The former published disappointing quarterly earnings, mainly due to lower coal volumes and increasing competition from trucking. Unibail Rodamco's value decreased among concerns about slowing tenant growth. However, the company managed to publish decent Q3 results with revenues having increased by 5% since beginning of the year.

Meanwhile, the Belgian investment company Gimv satisfied its investors with a strong investment activity. During the month, Gimv invested in Acceo, an independent French provider of inspection and certification services for buildings and in MEGA International, a leading global software and consulting services company.
